MARIE MILIE JONES, ESQUIRE, RECIPIENT OF ST. THOMAS MORE AWARD

Pittsburgh, PA - Marie Milie Jones has been awarded the St. Thomas More award, the highest honor given by the St Thomas More Society for Catholic lawyers. Following the annual Red Mass on October 11, 2011, Jones was presented this honor at a dinner held at Duquesne University. "I am humbled to be among the impressive list of prior awardees," said Jones. "The principles followed by St. Thomas More of doing what is right and just provide inspiration in the practice of law and in life. I shall look on this award as a reminder of those valued goals."

This award, presented annually by the St. Thomas More Society and approved by the Bishop, coincides with the traditional Red Mass, wherein guidance and blessings are sought for the bench and bar. Jones currently serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Duquesne University and is a member of the Board of Regents of St. Vincent Seminary. She practices law in the recently formed boutique litigation firm of JonesPassodelis, PLLC located in the Gulf Tower in Pittsburgh, where she focuses on employment and civil rights matters. Jones lives in Cranberry Township, PA.
